

How to buy an APP from APPSWALK

APPSWALK provides APPS auction mechanism, like eBay . The winner would be the bidder who placed the highest price. Or the buyer who clicked 'Buy it now'.

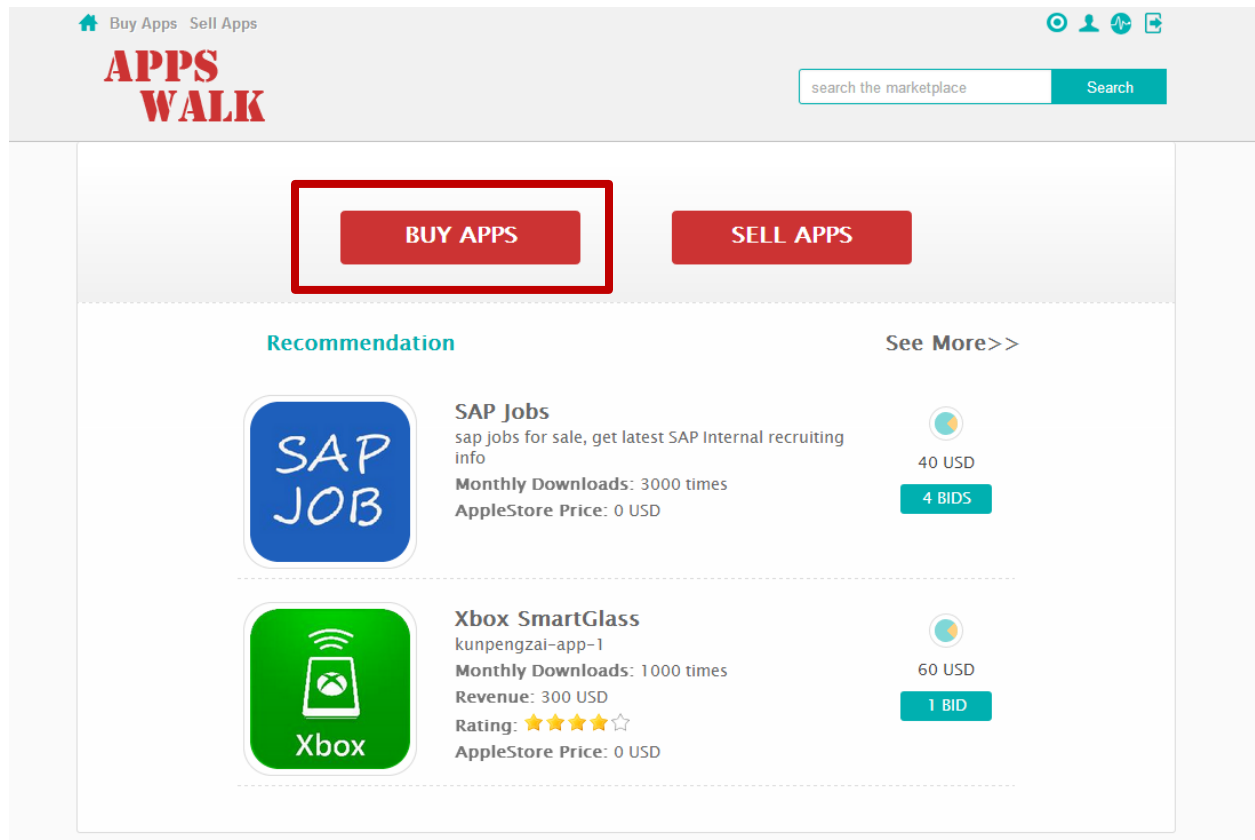

Figure 1

The 'Buy APPS' button can guide you to the listing page, where you can find all your interest apps.

All of apps in the home page are the Featured APPS; they are more valuable for buying.

After you placed bid , you would see the bidding overview from the other buyers(Figure 5).

And APPSWALK will send you the update via email if your bidding is exceeded by the others.

You will get an email also if you are the winner of this auction. After that you need to pay the money to the seller.

At any time you can check your account activities where you can find much more information there (Figure 6):

The screenshot displays the APPSWALK user interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with 'Buy Apps' and 'Sell Apps' links, a search bar labeled 'search the marketplace', and a 'Search' button. The APPSWALK logo is prominently displayed. On the left side, a sidebar menu lists various account activities: 'Activity Overview' (with sub-items 'Inbox' and 'Sent Messages'), 'My Apps' (with sub-items 'My Auctions' and 'My Bidding', where 'My Bidding' is highlighted with a red box), 'Watch List' (with sub-items 'Watched Apps', 'Watched Sellers', and 'Watched Categories'), and 'Your Account' (with sub-items 'Past Transactions' and 'Past Orders'). The main content area is divided into three sections: 'Draft Apps' (showing 'No draft app.'), 'Published Apps' (showing a table with one entry 'SAP Jobs' and 4 bids), and 'Sold/Closed Apps' (showing 'No sold/closed app.'). The 'Published Apps' table has columns for 'App Name', 'Auction Beginning', 'Auction Ending', and 'Bids'. The 'Sold/Closed Apps' table has columns for 'App Name', 'Sold Price', 'Action', and 'Status'. The page is labeled 'Page 1 of 1'.
